Anthem (11:00) Lo! How a Rose E'er Blooming arr. H. Distler
Chancel Choir

Lo! How a rose e'er blooming, from tender stem hath sprung.
Of Jesse's lineage coming, as men of old have sung.
It came a floweret bright amid the cold of winter,
When half-spent was the night.

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the rose I have in mind.
With Mary we behold it, the virgin mother kind.
To show God's love aright she bore to men a Savior,
When half-spent was the night.

This flower whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air
Dispels with glorious splendor the darkness everywhere.
True man, yet very God! From sin and death he saves us
And lightens every load.

Congregational Benediction Response UMH 664
Sent Forth by God's Blessing THE ASH GROVE
Sent forth by God's blessing, our true faith confessing, The seed of the teaching, receptive souls reaching,
The people of God from this dwelling take leave. Shall blossom in action for God and for all.
The service is ended, O now be extended God's grace did invite us, and love shall unite us
The fruits of our worship in all who believe. To work for God's kingdom and answer the call.
